DEAR FUTURE EAGLES:

On behalf of the Eagle coaching staff and myself, we would like to invite you to our football camp. We are looking forward to working with your child. Our focus will be on teaching fundamental skills, character and class. We believe through football, young men will learn about discipline, work ethic, and leadership. These traits are ones that they can carry with them the rest of their lives. We also want to provide a fun environment in which to introduce the game of football to your child. Canyon High School varsity football coaches will teach the fundamentals of the game, as well as specific instruction of individual positions on offense, defense, and special teams. We are looking forward to having you on our campus this summer (June 5-8) for football, fun and fellowship.

Sincerely,
